The Body of Christ has AIDS

Our Lenten Campaign called "The Body of Christ has AIDS" is a serious campaign being run by the Church of Ireland, that is endeavouring to assist in any way possible, two projects run by "Christian Aid" and "Tearfund", both of which help people with AIDS. Most families in the developing world get by on €1 a day! Please see if you could double this during Lent, by contributing €1 per day of Lent, i.e. €40.

At all services this Easter, there will be a plate handed around and it would be wonderful if each family, where possible, could put €40 in an envelope marked The Body of Christ has AIDS. Obviously, if you cannot manage €40, then please put what you can and if you can manage more than €40, then please do. The more we can give, the more help can be given and every donation will be gratefully received. AIDS doesn't wait till people are ready to receive the disease, it just comes. We shouldn't wait either, we should help. Please give what you can to help.

Start collecting your euros now. There is an envelope included in this newsletter marked The Body of Christ has AIDS. Please put into it your €40, or what ever amount you can afford and pop it on the plate at one of the Easter services. On behalf of the people this campaign will help, thank you!

Confirmation classes for March are being held in the rectory and are as follows:

Thursday 6th of March at 7p.m.
Subject: The Holy Spirit
Thursday 13th of March at 7p.m.
Subject: The Church

Pancake Party

A pancake party in aid of the National Children's Hospital in Tallaght, was held in the Parish Hall in Mountrath, on Tuesday the 5th of February last. The great sum of €350 was made! Well done to the Parent and Toddlers Group who organised the event. The pan cakes were delicious!

GFS Leaders Wanted

The Clonenagh branch of the Girl's Friendly Society is in need of leaders. We do need to have the required number, plus some extras to cover all events. The three ladies currently covering the fortnightly sessions will not continue after the summer, if some new leaders are not forthcoming, which means that GFS will come to and end in Mountrath from September on. So, do please consider joining our present leaders and giving a helping hand. We need at least three more leaders to cover all eventualities. This is the only way that GFS can possibly continue in Mountrath.
