Congratulations

to Jennifer and Albert Lalor on the birth of their daughter Amy, born on Thursday the 30th of July. A sister for Robert and Jane.

Clonenagh National School

We wish the new principal Ms Michelle Stone, (former second teacher at Clonenagh National School) and new staff teacher Ms Stephanie Rothwell both well as they take up their new duties this month. Best wishes also to Ms Finóla D'Arcy, Ms Emily Dunne and Ms Bir McWey, who return to their posts. At the time of going to press, we still do not know the name of the third teacher due to join the line up of teachers. We wish who ever it is, God's blessings as they take up their duties along with their fellow members of the teaching team. To all the pupils who return to school and those who are about to start, go for it and enjoy your time at school. God bless you all.

Congratulations to Robert Harvey on getting his honours degree in Music Education. You'll now have to address his letters as:

Mr Robert Harvey B. Mus. Ed. Robert starts his Masters in Music Education in Trinity in September.

Robert not only worked hard for his degree, but he also managed to have time to do very well in the recent Leinster Fleadh, getting a 1st in both whistling and lilting, a 2nd in both piccolo and flute and a 3rd in both whistle slow airs and flute slow airs. All this success puts Robert through to the All Ireland Fleadh in Tullamore.

James Harvey did not enter the Fleadh this year as he preparing to go to Zambia to do some concerts in Livingston, where he'll also play at the Irish Embassy. He then travels to Malawi where he will teach music to children in the Cross Roads Centre and as in Zambia, he will also perform at the Irish Embassy in Malawi. We wish him well on his travels.

Bishop's Musical Marathon

By the time this newsletter is printed, Bishop Michael will have played on all the organs in our six churches. We wish him God's blessings as he continues his musical journey.
