The Newsletter

May 2014

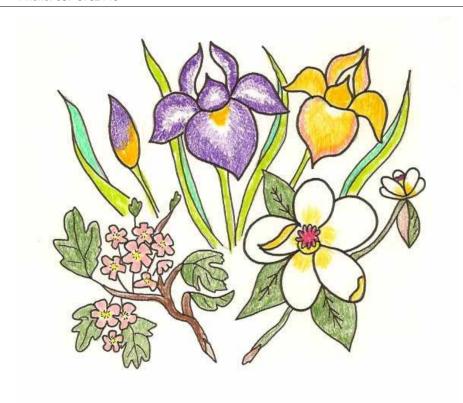

Rector:

Canon Ian Poulton, Clonenagh Rectory, Portlaoise Road, Mountrath.

Phone: 057-8732146

Diocesan Reader: Mabel Peavoy, Shannon Road, Mountrath. Phone:057-8732331 Parish Archivist: Vicky Knowles, Clonin School, Mountrath.

Phone: 057-8732846

May flowers from around the world

Clonenagh Group of Parishes

Annatrim, Borris-in-Ossory, Lacca, Mountrath, Roskelton, Seir Kieran.

Rector's letter

the late 1980s. Sometimes things get pinned to it and get forgotten about, remaining for years after they have ceased to be of any relevance. the drawing pin holes are numerous.

friend once brought when visiting us; expect to encounter God, then we cut it from a journal, had thinkina obviously it enough to pass on to someone else. years old, for the book from which so much time (and still do!) doing the quote comes was published in nothing very good in making the best use of reading my time. I read the words of the interest cutting.

and retain their significance is to of meeting God? gather them into a sign: a handclasp, a note, a tear, a word of affirmation, Had I heeded Sister Joan's words for a blessing. Nothing need be lost. We the past twenty-five years, work. encounters. our our The routines. seasons rhythmic messages, places become time. hallowed, and events open up their secrets. There is more mystery and more meaning in the ordinary. Prayer becomes something natural

I have a red notice board in my and spontaneous, and bears the study. I have had it since I was a unique marks of our own imagery curate in Newtownards, Co Down in and our own style of communication"

~Joan Puls, OSF, A Spirituality of Compassion, (Twenty-third Publications/Columba Press) p. 108

Beside the Irish Farmers' Association Sister Joan is saying that there is calendar for 2014, there is a cutting something special to be found in from a magazine that has been every day, and if there is something pinned to the notice board for so special is to be found, then we ought long that the paper is yellowed and to treasure each and every day; make the most of every moment; take all the opportunities that come The cutting was tucked into a book a our way; so that nothing is lost. If we will want to do things which show us important using our time wisely and well

It must be more than twenty-five I pondered her words. I have wasted worthwhile, 1988. Very conscious that I am not pointless programmes on television; things don't that wasting me: time Facebook. How much more could I have done if I had taken Sister "Nothing need be lost. There are Joan's advice to sacramentalize the many holy moments in our daily days, if I had lived each day as in the lives. And one way we can capture sight of God and in the expectation learn to sacramentalize our walks, might have been very different. If I our heeded Sister Joan's words, the become future should be one without wasted Sen Poster mended to its members the "Call powers than before. As a result, from Christians in Europe". The the opportunity for voters to influ-Rt Revd John McDowell, Bishop ence EU policy has never been of Clogher, Chairman of the Com- greater. This election is an oppormission for Christian Unity and tunity to voice our visions and as-Dialogue, says it is important to pirations for the future. We aspire alert church members to the im- towards: portance of casting their vote in the forthcoming elections to the A European Union based on the European Parliament.

Church of Ireland News

will have considerable influence pean Union of values which upon the framing of EU laws and holds and cherishes diversity. budgets over the next five years. caring for its most vulnerable peo-A constant criticism of the EU is ple A European Union that welthat there is insufficient contact comes migrants and refugees between the Union and its citi- A European Union which always zens, and the election of MEPs to stands up for and protects Human an increasingly important Parlia- Rights A European Union that ment is one way in which Church cares for God's creation, effecmembers views.

Unity and Dialogue commends tion of poverty in a globalised the "Call from Christians in Eu- world rope" to your attention. It says: 'In May 2014 elections for the Euro- We hope that you will use your the policies of the EU for the next motes peace and justice for all. five years. Due to changes in EU law, the next European Parlia-

The Church of Ireland has com- ment will have stronger legislative combination of a social market economy and high levels of social "The MEPs to be elected in May standards and protection A Eurocan express their tively addressing climate change and implementing effective environmental policies A European "Our Commission for Christian Union that works on the eradica-pean Parliament will take place. vote in the EP election to elect a Representatives from the 28 Parliament that will share our vi-Member States of the European sions. Your vote matters. Use it to Union will be elected to decide create a fairer Europe that pro-

Parish Notes

From the Registers

ment of Holy Baptism on Easter Eve. funeral were for the Friends 19th April 2014 at Seir Kieran Church, Portlaoise Hospital. we welcomed into the fellowship of of Clareen to Valerie; love and beauty, and hope personality. and faith, were the things that made material things.

vice, the burial took place in the ad- Church, Roskelton.

Holy Baptism: Through the sacra- joining churchyard. Donations at the

Christ's Church, Thomas Alan Shaw Thursday, 17th April 2014 at Roskelton Church, James Pratt of Dealgrove, Shanahoe. Growing up on the family Funerals: Wednesday, 16th April farm at Shanahoe, James was edu-2014 at Annatrim Church, Valerie cated at Portora School in Co Fer-Cooper of Coolrain Village. Growing managh before returning to Co Laois. up on a farm at Kells in Co Meath, A warm family man and a good friend Coolrain became home to Valerie af- to those who knew him. James loved ter her marriage to Sloane, their home conversation and laughter; he loved in the village becoming the place most memories and the retelling of stories. dear to her heart during the long Home for James was a place of love months of her illnesses. A devoted and security, a place to feel safe. After wife and mother, the first concern in his family, the great passion in James' Valerie's life was always her family. life was collecting things. Attending Gifted with extraordinary courage and countless car boot sales and auctions. resilience. Valerie twice persevered James had an eve for anything interwhen even the doctors believed there esting, different, well-crafted, beautiwas no further cause for hope and fully made. Should someone be looksummoned family members to her ing for something unlikely, it would bedside. During the dark moments, it likely be found somewhere in one of never seemed possible that Valerie James' sheds. Among his acquisiwould ever sit again at home at the tions. James had a century old copy of fireside, but there was an irrepressible a "Sear's" catalogue, the mail order spirit that sustained her. Above the catalogue through which people in fireplace in Coolrain, Valerie had a rural parts of North America could orprint of Dutch artist Gabriel Metsu's der everything they needed. Like painting, "Man Writing a Letter", the "Sear's", James was practical, rethemes of Metsu's work - family and sourceful and of constant variety. Givhome, a delight in both the common- ing the address at the funeral service, place and the beautiful, a sense of Mr Edwin Pratt, son of James' cousin God's presence in ordinary life, re- Sam, recalled moments he believed flected the things that were important captured a sense of James' life and Following James' funeral serone far richer than possible with any vice, the burial took place in the adjoining churchyard. Donations at the Following Valerie's funeral ser- funeral were for Saint Matthew's After the bustle of activity during April, We express our thanks to the leaders the month of May seems very quiet in of our local branch for all of their work comparison.

years, Mrs Maureen Lanigan from to England to visit his family from the severe weather at the end of Kieran and Mountrath. Calls will be 2010. Maureen developed leukaemia taken by Canon Patrick Harvey. last autumn and was very ill, but faith and determination have won through Ascension Day: The Ascension will and Maureen is rejoining us for the be marked by Holy Communion in fourth Sunday service.

General Synod: The General Synod Synod, Mr Offerlane. Mr Ivan Jestin from Borris- sult in donor fatique. in-Ossory and the Rector.

Day in Mountrath Church at 8 pm on day, 27th June. Wednesday, 14th May.

dral in Kilkenny on Sunday, 18th May. its beginnings last September and we during the past year.

Welcome back, Maureen: For three Rector away: The Rector is going Kilkenny led the worship in Annatrim Monday 19th May until Monday, 26th Church on the fourth Sunday of each May. In his absence the Revd Ian month, never failing to arrive, even in Coulter will be officiating at Seir

> Mountrath Church on Thursday, 29th May at 8 pm

of the Church of Ireland meets at Mountrath church windows: The Christ Church Cathedral in Dublin windows of Mountrath church are in a from Thursday, 8th May until Satur- poor state, the wooden window day, 10th May. Hopefully, the synod frames, which replaced the steel has moved on from its preoccupation framed diamond paned windows in with matters of sexuality and will en- the 1960s, are now rotten and extengage with some of the many other sive work will be necessary. The issues confronting the church. One of church is a protected structure and the motions to come before synod nothing can be considered until the concerns the development of or- county council have indicated what is dained local ministry, something that permissible, but it seems likely that a might revitalise the life of scattered six figure sum may be necessary. We rural church communities. Our parish- shall need to look at quick and effies have four members of General cient ways of raising the money; in Joe Peavoy from the current economic climate repeat-Clonenagh, Mrs Jean Treacy from ed fundraising efforts would soon re-

Golf Classic: After a six year break, Saint Matthias' Day: There will be Clonenagh Parish is holding a golf Holy Communion for Saint Matthias' classic at Mountrath Golf Club on Fri-

Bible Club and Holiday Club: The GFS Service: The annual diocesan Thursday Bible Club held its last service of the Girls' Friendly Society meeting before the summer on 10th takes place at Saint Canice's Cathe- April. The Club developed well from ed, look out for flyers about it.

Lacca Church: Lacca has grown Clonenagh on such a foundation. Many of those poor condition. who have joined us for worship have come from backgrounds more evan- appreciated. gelical than the traditional Church of month. Ireland and we need to ask whether. to successfully combine the two tradi- port, and all are welcome. tions over the course of the month. we would make Lacca a church for day 29th in Leskinfere Hall, Gorey at both the parish and for the wider 2.30pm community and we might be more successful at holding on to our Wednesday 30th in Presbyterian Hall younger people, who tend to drift Kilkenny at 8pm. The speaker is Caraway from traditional services and ol Adams on Educating Children in only reappear when they have chil- Uganda. All Welcome. dren themselves. It is a matter for prayer and for a seeking after what Sunday 7th September in St Michael the Holy Spirit may be saying to our & All Angels' Church. Abbevleix at parishes.

Summer series: We shall have our fifth annual summer sermon series at Borris-in-Ossory Church on Wednesare very grateful to Mervyn Tomb day evenings in June, July and Aufrom the Faith Mission for his tireless gust. Our theme this year is going to enthusiasm in running the Club. be "re-learning our catechism". Most Mervyn and a team will be again run- of us have forgotten the things we ning a Bible summer camp in Moun- were taught when we were young trath during July - if you are interest- and all of us need a refresher course from time to time Parish Fundraising well over the past months, the four Committee are planning a golf o'clock service on the third Sunday of classic on Friday 27th June at each month having an average at- Mountrath Golf Club in aid of subtendance of over fifty. We need now stantial repairs to the windows of to prayerfully ask how we might build Mountrath Church which are in a very

> Your support would be much more details next alongside the traditional Church of Mothers Union & Young Wives will Ireland services, which take place hold the final meeting for the season twice a month, on the first and third on Monday 28th April at 8pm in the Sundays, we might offer worship on Parochial Hall, Mountrath. The theme the other two Sundays that would be is flowers and Imelda from Floral Vicloser to the style of worship of the sion Mountrath will be the speaker evangelical churches. If we were able and do a demonstration. Please sup-

Area Council meeting on Tues-

Ossory Area Meeting

Diocesan Festival service on 4pm. This is a Family Service.

The film at the cinema was over and A Sunday school teacher was discussone flea said to the other: "Should we ing the Ten Commandments with her walk home, or take the dog?"

Got it already

"I cannot understand you," said the young man to his unmarried aunt. "You One little boy answered, "Thou shall seem so happy and contented. always thought that unmarried women are lonely and miserable and just longing for the presence of a man about the place."

"Well," his aunt responded, smiling, "I've got a fireplace that smokes, a parrot that swears, a cat that stays out half the night with no explanation, and a On a notice underneath: This door is dog that leaves muddy footprints all locked in winter months. over the house. What more do I want?"

The same yesterday . . .

for forty years?

ask for directions.

Telly trouble

A woman summoned a TV repairman to fix her set. After spreading his tools If you lend someone €20, and never out, the serviceman inquired: 'What see that person again, it was probably seems to be the trouble?"

are terrible "

five and six year olds. After explaining the commandment to "honour thy father and thy mother," she asked "Is there a commandment that teaches us how to treat our brothers and sisters?"

I've not kill."

Closed!

An inscription over a church door in 'This is the house of God. Cheshire: This is the gate of heaven'.

Life

The things that come to those that wait Why did Moses wander in the desert may be the things left by those who got there first.

Because even back then men wouldn't Always keep your words soft and sweet, just in case you have to eat them.

> Always read stuff that will make you look good if you die in the middle of it.

worth it

The woman replied, "The programmes Birds of a feather flock together - and mess on your car.

Services & Readings

May 2014
First Sunday 4 th	Acts 2: 14a, 36-41 Psalm 116: 1-3, 10-17 1 Peter 1: 17-23 Luke 24: 13-35	Roskelton 9.30am Morning Prayer	Seir Kieran 9.30am Morning Prayer	Lacca 10.30am Holy Communion	Borris-in- Ossory 11.00am Morning Prayer	Mountrath 11.30am Holy Communion
Second Sunday 11 th	Acts 2: 42-47 Psalm 23 1 Peter 2: 19-25 John 10: 1-10	Seir Kieran 9.30am Holy Communion		Annatrim 11.00am Holy Communion		Mountrath 11.30am Morning Prayer
Third Sunday 18 th	Acts 7: 55-60 Psalm 31: 1-5, 15-16 1 Peter 2: 2-10 John 14: 1-14	Roskelton 9.30am Holy Communion	Seir Kieran 9.30am Morning Prayer	Lacca 10.30am Morning Prayer	Borris-in- Ossory 11.00am Holy Communion	Mountrath 11.30am Morning Prayer
Fourth Sunday 25 th	Acts 16: 9-15 Psalm 67 Revelation 21: 10, 22 - 22: 5 John 14: 23-29	Seir Kieran 9.30am Morning Prayer	Annatrim 11.00am Morning Prayer		Mountrath 11.30am Holy Communion

Parish Diary

April 28th	Mountrath Mothers' Union meeting (page 6)
	Mothers' Union Area Council meeting (page 6)
April 30th	Mothers' Union Ossory Area meeting (page 6)
18th Sunday	G.F.S Annual Diocesan Service (page 5)
21st Wednesday	Closing date for June 2014 Newsletter items!
June 27th	Clonenagh Parish Golf Classic (pages 5 & 6)

Items for the June 2014 Newsletter need to be with the editor by WEDNESDAY May 21st AT THE LATEST, so that the Newsletter can be assembled in time for the 4th Sunday, May 25th.

PLEASE make your item as ready for publication as possible, and most importantly, please ensure that you spell names correctly.

Ideally, items should be submitted by e-mail to- newsletter@clonenagh.com

Otherwise to- Ivor Clegg, Cloncourse, Mountrath, Co. Laois. 057-8621277/087-2522162 This Newsletter and many older editions can be downloaded directly from www.clonenagh.com