Church of Ireland News

Welcoming strangers

On 15th March, the Church of Ireland's most diverse (and lively!) choirs, the Discovery Gospel Choir celebrated its tenth anniversary. Formed in 2004, it is based at the Dublin city centre church of St George and St Thomas.

Marking the anniversary, the "Irish Times", recalled, "Already by 2005 it was attracting unusual levels of attention. In May of that year one of its most Lent and mixed-race "go out into this beautiful Emerald Isle distributed to poor families.

and tell them the rainbow is a rainbow only because of its colours . . . tell them God thinks in technicolour and that his creation is an extravaganza".

Ten years on, and Church of Ireland members need still to work on how we integrate into our communities those who are different.
